Planning can realign your organization or team for strategic change. Build consensus for your mission, vision, core values, and strategic priorities. Set realistic objectives, actions, timelines, and performance measures. Help your organization and teams become more focused and productive by applying our easy-to-implement strategy tools.

Retreat participants will learn to:

- Assess strengths, limitations, opportunities, and threats
- Understand the planning process and each person's role
- Update existing objectives, mission, vision, and values
- Use step-by-step planning templates to create a plan
- Identify critical issues and measurable solutions
- Create action plans and metrics to implement
- Anticipate change and be productive

"The Consulting Team has been helpful to our department in leading our creation of a realistic achievable strategic plan. They also had the talent for helping our planning team develop strategic priorities and their communications, while maintaining a strict timeline to keep the group on-task."

- Chief Steve Sweeney, Livermore Police Department
